

Pastoral Residency for New Pastors...

Experience Utah!

Needed: Candidate ready to receive first call, seminary student close to graduating from seminary...

Are you ready to start ministering a congregation? Or are you still uncertain if God is calling you into congregational ministry? Would you like to have a chance getting your feet wet in congregational work?

...Presbyterian Church would love to be a playground for your ministerial growth and development.

This church is (Describe church, location, and congregation) The ministry time at the church would be one to two years. The congregation would offer housing, salary, potential help with seminary fees, gift baskets entrance ticket to parks, gift cards for dining as well as invitations for recreational time with members. This is a great opportunity to learn firsthand how to preach, lead, and minister a congregation. The congregation understands its mission to be a playground for your ministerial development and growth!

Perks for you: The time with the congregation offers an opportunity to explore leadership, preaching, pastoral care skills with room for trial and error...a time to continue your studies.

Encounter beautiful Utah: Utah a place where you can commune with God in a natural wide-open setting, experience the deep gratitude of a loving congregation who is ready to embrace you with grace and love for you to grow into the pastor God calls you to be.

Support: COM will provide oversight, mentorship as well as work closely together with all involved to guarantee a good and inspiring playground experience.

Other incentives...

If interested, please contact: SmallChurch@pbyutah.org

