SEXUAL ABUSE PREVENTION AND RESPONSE

POLICY

We believe that Scripture and our faith in Jesus Christ call us to standards of responsible conduct in all of life, including sexual behavior.

It is the policy of the Presbytery of Utah that all members of Presbytery (ordained ministers), all persons on other rolls of Presbytery (commissioned ruling elders, commissioned church workers, inquirers, candidates), all employees of Presbytery (whether ordained to church office or not), and all who serve in the work or function on behalf of the Presbytery as volunteers or as specific agents of the Presbytery are to maintain integrity of ministerial, employment, professional, and ecclesiastical relationships at all times.

It is further the policy of the Presbytery of Utah that each particular church and entity operating within and/or under the authority of the Presbytery of Utah shall adopt a policy prohibiting sexual misconduct and shall inform their congregation of the policy. A copy of each church's policy be provided to the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of Utah.

The responsibility of the Presbytery of Utah with regard to accusations of violation of its policy and procedures on sexual misconduct is to ensure that an effective, caring, and expeditious response is made to all persons, institutions, and entities which may be affected by either a violation of professional ethics or the allegation of a violation. In all cases, all persons shall be treated with respect, personal integrity shall be presumed, and statements shall be taken seriously.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this sexual abuse prevention and response policy is to make explicit the Presbytery's opposition to abusive behavior and oppressive or degrading environments in employment and other church relationships, to provide a process for the determination of facts in cases of allegations of violation of the policy, and to provide for the imposition of appropriate remedies and disciplines in cases of violation. Within the ecclesiastical context, it makes explicit the duty of the Presbytery to provide or provide for pastoral care of persons who may be affected by either a violation or an allegation of violation of the policy.

DEFINITIONS

Sexual misconduct involves the misuse of trust, authority, or power in a relationship to gain advantage over another in an abusive, exploitative, or unjust manner. In the case of church professionals (whether they are in pastoral, counseling, or other such relationships), no personal sexual contact or conduct, either public or private, is permitted with anyone with whom the individual has a professional relationship. It is the responsibility of a church officer or church worker to maintain appropriate sexual boundaries and limitations.

Sexual misconduct may include, but is not necessarily limited to:

- 1) sexual contact or conduct with another person while in ministerial, employment, professional, or ecclesiastical relationship, whether or not consensual; or
- 2) sexual conduct, which includes sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature in which submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment or church-relationship status or in which submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual affects decisions regarding employment or membership-status of an individual, or in which such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's performance by creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working or church-relationship environment; or
- 3) sexual malfeasance defined as sexual conduct within a ministerial (e.g., clergy with a member of the congregation) or professional relationship (e.g., counselor with a client, lay employee with a church member, presbytery executive with a committee member who may be a layperson, a minister, or an elder). Sexual conduct includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature. This definition is not meant to cover relationships between spouses, nor is it meant to restrict church professionals from having mutual, social, or marital relationships.

Sexual misconduct also includes violation of the criminal laws of the state in which the conduct occurred, including rape or sexual contact by force, threat, or intimidation, or any other sexual crimes including any contact or interaction between a child and an adult when the child is being exploited for sexual gratification, whether the behavior does or does not involve touching; such sexual behavior between a child and an adult is always considered forced whether or not consented to by the child.

APPLICATION

This sexual abuse prevention and response policy of the Presbytery of Utah applies to all members of Presbytery (ordained ministers), all persons on other rolls of Presbytery (commissioned church workers, inquirers, candidates), all employees of Presbytery (whether ordained to church office or not), and all who serve in the work or function on behalf of Presbytery as volunteers. The sexual abuse prevention and response policy and procedure does not apply to persons unless they are either members of the Presbytery of Utah, on the rolls of Presbytery, or serve as employees or as specific agents of the Presbytery.

REPORTING PROCEDURE

A person who has a reasonable belief that a violation of the sexual abuse prevention and response policy has occurred by a person to whom this policy is applicable is required to make a report thereof in a prompt and timely manner to the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of Utah, any other member of the elected professional staff of the Presbytery of Utah, or the chair of the Committee on Ministry of the Presbytery of Utah. Failure to provide notification of a reasonable belief of violation of the sexual abuse prevention and response is itself a violation of the policy.

In order that confidentiality be maintained and that the procedures of the Presbytery of Utah not be compromised, any person who has a reasonable belief that a violation of the sexual abuse prevention and response policy has occurred is to make a report to the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of Utah and/or civil authorities as may be required by statute, but is not to propagate rumor by other reporting of hearsay, allegations, or suspicions. It is the sole responsibility of the Presbytery of Utah to exercise ecclesiastical jurisdiction with regard to its policy.

A person notified of an alleged violation is to record the names of the accused and accuser, together with a brief description of the alleged offense, in order to prepare a written statement of an alleged offense, together with any supporting information, and transmit these to the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of Utah for the initiation of appropriate procedures described in this document and in accord with Chapter D-10.0000 from the Rules of Discipline of the Book of Order of The Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). The statement shall give a clear narrative and allege facts that, if proven true, would likely result in disciplinary action. Such allegations shall be referred to an investigating committee (D-10.0101). The Stated Clerk need not be personally persuaded of the truth of the allegations nor need the Stated Clerk see all of the supporting evidence available before instituting procedures.

If the Executive Presbyter receives the allegations, the Executive Presbyter will forward them to the Synod Stated Clerk for action in accordance with Chapter D-10 from the Rules of Discipline of the Book of Order.

When violation of a criminal statute is believed to have occurred (as in the case of child abuse) or when otherwise required by civil law, a person who has direct personal knowledge of such violation is to make report to the appropriate governmental agency in addition to making a report to the Stated Clerk.

When report of an alleged violation of the Presbytery's policy on sexual abuse prevention and response is received, the Stated Clerk shall initiate the Presbytery's procedures for the establishment of an investigating committee under the provisions of Chapter D-10.0000 from the Rules of Discipline of the Book of Order of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and any personnel policies or other procedures in effect within the Presbytery of Utah.

In addition to initiating procedure pursuant to the Book of Order, the Stated Clerk shall inform the Executive Presbyter and the Moderator of the Committee on Ministry of the Presbytery of Utah of the fact that an offense has been alleged. As appropriate or required, notification of insurance carriers, civil authorities, or local employing or governing bodies, shall be made by the Executive Presbyter.

In the pastoral care provided by the Committee on Ministry of the Presbytery of Utah, there shall be no effort made to determine the guilt or innocence of any parties. The Committee on Ministry shall supervise and manage ministries of care, oversight, interpretation, reconciliation, or any other services provided by or through the Presbytery of Utah to restore a congregation or entity to effective function.

The Committee on Ministry may, when it is deemed necessary for the protection of persons or institutions, initiate appropriate measures for someone not on the Committee on Ministry to be appointed as Counselor for the care of any and all persons and institutions which have been or might be affected by the alleged misconduct, including local employing or governing bodies. - 1) interpretation of the Presbytery's policy and procedure and judicial process in consultation with the Stated Clerk, and needs for pastoral care;
- 2) recommendation of appropriate resources for specialized services (interim pastoral care, counseling, conflict resolution, personal advocacy, etc.) and
- 2) provision of appropriate pastoral care for the accused, the accuser, and other persons or institutions affected by the allegation of sexual misconduct.

Should the accused acknowledge the substantial truth of the accuser's charges or should there be evidence which might make such actions prudent, the Committee on Ministry may impose any of the following measures:

- 1) In the case of the accused being in a pastoral position:
 - a) the immediate restriction of the pastoral activities of the accused;
